WILLIAM YOUNG
25 Sept. 1762 - 25 Oct. 1839

William Young was a resident of Pennsylvania in the year 1800. A more specific location is not known. Nor is it known whether they came directly from PA to Crawford County, Ohio or whether he is the William who was a taxpayer in Fairfield County, Hocking Township in 1806; Muskingum County in 1816 or Pickaway in 1816. However, about 1820 William and his wife Mary and their family had settled in Crawford County, Whetstone Township in Section 5. They were the parents of ten children, five boys and five girls. By the time they arrived in Crawford County at least John, Jacob and George were young men. By 1830 they were all taxpayers on 160 acres each. Their other two sons were Michael and William. Their daughters were Elizabeth who married George Black; Polly who possibly never married; Barbara who married Jacob Shaffer, a daughter, name unknown who married a Mr. Burns and was probably deceased by the time her father made his will in 1839. The Burns had two children who were remembered in their grandfather's will with 80 acres of land located in Henry County, Ohio. Their names were Mary (Burns) Fashbaugh and William Baurns. A daughter Nancy, my great grandmother, who married Isaac H. Fickle on Dec. 25, 1825 by Conrad Rath, J.P. Marion County, Ohio. Nancy was born in PA on 31 Dec. 1800 or 1802. (See Fickle Family Hist. for information on the family of Nancy(Young) and Isaac H. Fickle). Perhaps John was also deceased or some other reason his share was given to his sons William and Tobias.

William Young was a large land holder in Bucyrus Twp. at an early day. He gave each of his children 160 acres of land. He built a flowering mill on the fourth section and this was the portion he transferred to George and Elizabeth Black. For some time it was a horse mill and customers could not secure a grist without they took their own horses and were sometimes compelled to wait many hours before their turn arrived.

Perhaps grandfather and some of his sons heard Col. Kilbourne render the Ballad which he composed for the special occasion in the spring of 1822 when the sale of lots in the town of Bucyrus was held. The Col. had laid out these lots. The fourth stanza of the "Song of Bucyrus" begins: "First Norton and the Beadles came,
With friends and enterprising band;
Young and McMichael, men of fame,
Soon joined the others hand in hand."

William spent the rest of his life in Crawford County, Ohio. He made his will on the 22 day of October 1839. Only a few days of life remained for William. He died on Oct. 25, 1839, aged 77 years. His was the first known burial in a graveyard two miles west of Bucyrus on the Wyandot road. His wife Mary survived him and was still living in June 1840.

Dear Roena,

Here is what I sent out on Grandfather's birthplace* found on a Pony Express map, to Nora + Carolyn -

For a little help I emailed OCTA, Oregon California Trails Assoc., and asked them if they could advise me about a certain trail. Got two answers with great suggestions and information about the time - 1860s, that I hadn't known before. New trails that opened up in the time between the gold rush and when they came across, and Indians making trouble on the northern trail that most of the pioneers used coming to California earlier. I was a member of OCTA for many years. The adventures on the trails and lectures were great, the conventions were always held in a location near the old trails.

One of the persons that emailed me info has asked for a copy of Dr.'s notes and I have sent them. He said the University of Oklahoma Press recently published a book of emigrant diaries that he edited. The name of the book is West from Salt Lake; Diaries from the Central Overland Trail. The Central Overland was the route that was used by the Overland Stage and Pony Express. So my first best guess about their crossing, Great Grandfather's, back in '88 wasn't too far off.

The enclosed is probably more than you ever wanted to know about the trails in Utah and Nevada but I just couldn't let it go.... and it was a lot of fun doing.

Take care, love,

Cousin Helen

P.S. What a wonderful visit we had the other day on the phone.

* A mistake that our family has made all these years. When I looked more closely at the writings in the family bible "Alva Wooster Fickle was born near Willow Springs in Salt Spring Valley, Utah Territory August the 30 1860", not Willow Springs itself. (That is if one wants to be exactly correct.....) I really don't think it will make a bit of difference in history though.

I went on Find a Grave and did not have any luck with John Jasper Fulkerson dying or being buried in Michigan. I also can't find the obit., but the info is on his Family Group Sheet. d. May 4, 1845, Cambria, Hillsdale Co. MI. Maybe they were not recording back then.

Finding Willow Springs

Grandfather was born August 30, 1860 at Willow Springs, Salt Spring Valley, Utah Territory; from the family Bible. His family was traveling by wagon to California.

His father, William Young Fickle, was born in Ohio 1826. His liking was not for farming so he studied under Doctors Curtis and Cook in the medical field. He and wife, Sarah Ann (Fulkerson) and two children, William and Evelyn were living in Williams County, Ohio when they started their journey west. Using Great Grandfathers diary notes as a guide, we find them in Sydney, Iowa, on May 3, 1860, ready to cross the Missouri River for their long trek.

Off and on through the past years I searched to find just where this Willow Springs was, and finally found it on a map of the Pony Express Trail. Wanting to know where it would be on today's map, and how did they get so far south of the popular Oregon California Trail, a new search began. Going back up the trail from Salt Lake City eastward to Fort Bridger I found a Capt. Simpson's Route that led to Salt Lake City along with Hastings Cutoff and the Pony Express Trail.

One could easily picture the wagon train camped by a nice spring where my Great Grandmother gave birth to her son, Alva Wooster Fickle, August 30, 1860, this place being Willow Springs in the Utah Territory. With the advantage of computers I was pleased to find it might have been a little more comfortable than imagined. Willow Springs' name was changed to Callao in 1895. It was on the Wagon Route explored by Capt. J.H. Simpson and opened in 1858-9*, the Pony Express Trail, and the Overland Stage Station operated there from 1859 to 1870. (Utah Landmark Plaque No. 83). The old town site of Callao is located in Western Juab County, Utah, seventeen miles east of the Nevada Border.

Thanks to personnel at the Oregon California Trail Association, who were very helpful with their suggestions, I could find the necessary clues to their passage through the territory by noting various landmarks mentioned in the diary notes. Seeing that the Capt. Simpson trail, Pony Express trail and the Stage Route passed right along Carson Lake in Nevada, Great Grandfather must have continued on this trail from Fort Bridger to Salt Lake City south to Lehi and Camp Floyd, west to Willow Springs, Ruby Valley, on westward across Nevada where they camped in Carson Valley and rejoined the California Trail at Dayton, Nevada. Note: "Sept. 26. Drove sixteen miles. Terrible roads. Camped in Carson Valley. The valley is large and level here. Carson Lake is a large sheet of water and looks beautiful."

They next took the Carson Trail into the Sierra Nevada Mountains. From the Carson Trail they choose the Big Trees Trail as he mentions in the notes, "passed by the Mother of the Forest", now the Calaveras Big Tree National Forest and ended their trek in Mokelumne CitySan Joaquin County, California October 30, 1860.

"Map showing the several Mail Routes of Geo. Chorpennig through the Indian Country from 1850 to 1861 and Indian Depredations committed upon Mail Trains."

Mokelumne City flooded in 1862 and never recovered. A new town was build a few miles away called New Hope. Later the town is known as Thornton, CA.

Diary of Dr. William Y. Fickle

May 3, 1860. Left Sidney, Fremont County, Iowa and arrived in Boulder the ninth of May. Pleasant Trip. Left Boulder May 10 for Washer Valley. Camped on Boulder River. Rain.

July 18, 1860. Roads very rough and broken. Camped on a clear rocky stream. Are in sight of the mountains all the time.

July 21. Traveled nineteen miles. Roads good, mostly level with some rock. Reached the Platte River. A natural stone fence adorns one side of the river from ten to fifty feet high, for several miles. Rested Sunday.

July 23. Rested and washed on Platte River waiting for the river to fall.

July 26. Traveled fifteen miles over hilly roads, through Bridger's Pass. Camped on Muddy Creek. Passed a grave of a man drowned in this stream, the name of Leowley.

July 28. Camped by a spring of mineral water, called the Bitter Spring. Passed a rock in the shape of hay stack. No grass.

August 4. Came ten miles. Crossed Green River on a flat boat, price two dollars per person. Camped opposite the Red Buttes. Saw a man that had been in the mountains since he was twenty years old. Name - John Meanard. The river is not as wide as the Platte, but deeper and cleaner. Have nice fresh water and good grass.

August 6. Camped on the north bank of the Green River. Plenty of grass and water. The ferryman has joined our company together with his mountaineer.

August 12 Camped in a quaking aspen grove. Passed four graves today.

August 16. Saw some of the nicest springs I ever saw coming out of the mountains. Some of the water tasted like slate, some of sulphur and one of salt.

September 2. Stayed all day. Captain's lady gave birth to a son.

September 3. Started in the afternoon. Traveled all night. Came twenty miles. Good roads. Good Water and grass. Some wood.

Doc W. R. 16

September 26. Drove sixteen miles. Terrible roads Camped in Carson Valley. The valley is large and level here. Carson Lake is a large sheet of water and looks beautiful.

October 3. This morning the mountains are covered with snow and present a beautiful scene. The mountains here are covered with pine. The leaves are as green as in summer.

October 17. Drove twelve miles. Good roads, no grass, good water. Passed the Mother of the Forest. It is 327 feet high, circumference 78 feet.

October 30. Arrived in Mokelumne City.

(Note from writer: "Here is a conflict with the opening account of Fickle's life, which states he spent the winter in Salt Lake City. It is true that the penciled writing in the journal was faded and indistinct and some words were impossible to read....

Another interesting note it mentioned: A lot of Shoshone Indians were around the camp today trading us for bread and powder and lead----.)"

Extract from Story of Blue Lake - Susie Baker Fountain - Vol. 3.

My Note: I copied this from the works of Susie Baker Fountain, an historian who wrote articles about the early settlers in Blue Lake, Humboldt County, CA. I have a letter to my cousin from a W. C. Baldwin, Apr 4, 1974, said he knew Dr. Fickle, and that Susie's works are at the Humboldt State College in Arcata, CA. When I went up there I searched at both the college and the Eureka city library successfully.

Dear Folks;

I read in the last issue of the Arcata Union where you folks were in Humboldt County looking up information regarding your great grand father, Mr. W.Y. Fickle. I hope that you were able to get what you needed. Mr. Fickle was quite a man about the Arcata area in the early days. In fact he has a HILL named after him. "Fickle Hill", and it is well known. However so many of the old folks have passed on that it is hard to find anyone who has the information that you desire. Unfortunately people did not bother to record history during those early days. It was all so new and they took it all for granted.

My folks moved to Blue Lake in 1904 and were four houses from the Greenwood home. We knew the Greenwood family very well and I remember when Dr. Fickle and his wife came to live with the Greenwoods. I remember Dr. Fickle sitting out on the front porch in the sun and talking to anyone who went past. He was a very interesting old gentleman. He passed away in 1917 and my father was a pall bearer. I would assume that Lena Schmidt would have given Dr. Fickle's diary to Susie Fountain as her son Jackie married Sugie's daughter. He was killed in second world war. Sugie at the time was a Humboldt Historian and was writing up Arcata and Blue Lake History of years ago. All of Sugie Baker Fountain manuscripts and papers are in the "Sugie Baker Fountain Room" at the Humboldt State College in Arcata.

I am enclosing some sheets pulled from my files that might help you out.

Very truly yours,

W.C. Baldwin.

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Callao (ⓘ[ⓘ] /ˈkæliːoʊ/ KAL-ee-oh) is a small farming community in northern Snake Valley, along the border of Juab County and Tooele County, Utah, United States. It was part of the original Pony Express overland route, and was first called Willow Springs in 1860. E. W. Tripp, his wife and son, were the first to establish residence there, in 1870. In 1895 it was decided that Willow Springs was too common a name, and a new name would be chosen. The name Callao was chosen because of a resemblance to Callao, Peru, suggested by an old prospector in the region who was working out of Gold Hill to the north.^[2] It is unknown how the pronunciation changed from the Spanish [kaˈjau] ('kah-YOW'). Little more than a group of ranches, Callao has a long history of being small and isolated.

WILLOW SPRINGS PONY EXPRESS STATION (UPTL#83)

THIS STATION WAS ESTABLISHED APRIL 8, 1860 ON THE ROUTE OF THE PONY EXPRESS BETWEEN ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI AND SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA. IT WAS DISCONTINUED OCTOBER 27, 1861 WHEN THE TRANSCONTINENTAL TELEGRAPH LINE WAS OPENED.

AN OVERLAND STAGE STATION WAS OPERATED HERE FROM 1859 TO 1870.

This was also found:

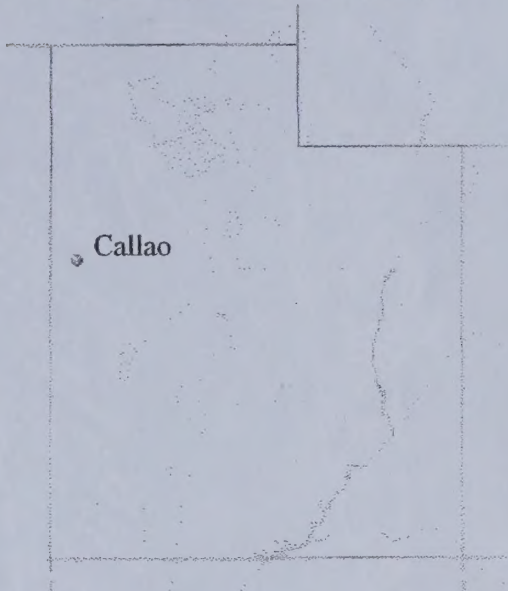

Willow Springs Pony Express Station (UPTL#83)

Location: Western Juab County, at old townsite of Callao, Seventeen miles east of the Nevada Border, GPS: N39 deg. 54'00, W113 deg. 42' 47.06" elevation 4,336 ft.

The Willow Springs Home Station was established April 8, 1860. It is located on the Bagly Ranch on the Western end of Callao. This station because of its structures, is one of the most interesting and most frequently visited in Utah. The monument and the buildings are still in good condition. It is one of the best preserved stations in the U.S. and is the only existing home station maintained on private property. An overland stage station was operated here from 1859 to 1870.

Hi again. We're at last having some sunshine, but have north wind with it today which is never very welcome here. Summer it's hot and winter it's cold.

Thank you for pointing me in the right direction again. I found Nancy in the 1880 Census, Farmers Twp. Defiance Co. OH in Dwelling 265, Fam. 275, FICKLE, Nancy, W F ae 74, Widowed, Housekeeper, b. Penna, Father b. Penna, Mother b. Penna. Nancy lived between George S. and Mary Fickle (264-274) and Peter P. and Matilda CULLER, (266-276). WILLIAM YOUNG ca 1762 - 25 Oct. 1839

William YOUNG was a resident of Pennsylvania in the year 1800. A more specific location is not known. Nor is it known whether they came directly from PA to Crawford Co., OH or whether he is the William who was a taxpayer in Fairfield Co., Hocking Twp. in 1806; Muskingum Co. in 1816 and Pickway Co. in 1816. However about 1820 William, his wife Mary and their family had settled in Crawford Co., Whetstone Twp. in Sec. 5.

They were the parents of ten children, five girls and five boys. By the time they arrived in Crawford Co. at least John, Jacob and George were young men and by 1830 were also taxpayers on 160 acres each. Their other two sons were Michael and William.

Their daughters were:

Elizabeth who married George BLACK

Polly (Mary) who possibly never married

Barbara who married Jacob SHAFFER

DAUGHTER, (name unknown) who married a Mr. BURNS and was probably deceased by the time her father made his will
The Burns two children, Mary (Burns) FASHBAUGH and William BURNS were remembered in their grandfathers will with 80 acres of land located in Henry Co., OH

Nancy, (my great grandmother) married Isaac H. FICKLE on Dec. 25, 1825 by Conrad Rath, J.P., Marion Co., OH. Nancy was born in PA on 31 Dec. some records show 1800 and others 1802. (see FICKLE Family History for information on the family of Nancy (Young) and Isaac H. Fickle.)

William YOUNG in his will left his son John's share to John's children William and Tobias. We are left to ponder the reason.

William YOUNG spent the rest of his life in Crawford Co., OH. He made his last will and testament on the 22 day of Oct. 1839.

Only a few days of life remained for William. He died on Oct. 25, 1839 aged 77 years. His was the first known burial in a graveyard two miles west of Bucyrus on the Wyandot road. His wife Mary survived him and was still living in June 1840.

The map on the opposite side graphically displays the allocations of lands through various grants of the part of the old Northwest Territory that became the great state of Ohio. Ohio became the 17th state in the United States of America through congressional action on March 1, 1803. However, as the map indicates the occupation of lands west, northwest and north of the meandering Ohio River were officially occupied several years earlier. The first of the 18 land grants in the area that is now Ohio was made in 1784; entitled Virginia Military Lands. These lands were awarded to Virginia soldiers of The Revolutionary War, including our First President (The Father of Our Country) George Washington, and Generals George Rogers Clark and Daniel Morgan. General Washington's four tracts of land, comprising 3,051 acres, were located in what is now Clermont County, just north of the Ohio River and east of what is now Cincinnati.

(This map is made available to the public by the Auditor of State in the hopes of generating further interest by Ohioans in the development of their great state.)

ried James McCracken, who for two generations was prominent in the affairs of this county, and whose children were also active and prominent in the history of Bucyrus.

About 1828 there came into southern Bucyrus Isaac, William, Thomas and Osborne Monnett. Isaac Monnett owned several farms on the plains prior to 1830. In 1835 Rev. Jeremiah Monnett removed to the township and purchased his land of John Barney, the Rev. Thomas Monnett farm, four miles south of Bucyrus, now occupied by William Monnett, son of Rev. Thomas Monnett. Rev. Jeremiah's house stood just south of the present large brick building. It was a cabin of hewed logs. Here he lived until a better house was erected on the east side of the pike. He had three children, Abraham, Thomas J. and Mary, the latter later marrying James Royce. There were several families of negroes settled on what afterward became the Gornly farm, two miles south of Bucyrus, later the Rexroth farm. This gave the name to the woods a quarter of a mile from the pike the "nigger woods." These first colored pioneers were from Virginia, and came in 1828. At that time, under Ohio laws, the poor overseers of each township had the right to demand bond of $500 of any new arrival that he would not become a public charge. The Virginia owner on his death had given them freedom but not enough cash, and they were unable to put up the bond, so all left but one family, known as Old Solomon, he remained with his wife. He did not put up the $500, but one family made no difference and he was allowed to remain. Among those living in the township in 1830, as shown by the tax duplicate, were Thomas Adams, John Black, John Bowman, Isaac Fickle, Joshua Lewis, John Miller, Joseph Pearce, Jane Stephenson and Gottlieb John Schultz. Thomas Adams had 48 acres in section 9, two miles west of Bucyrus, the Chris Wisman farm along the river; John Black, 80 acres, section 13, a mile south, the Henry Flock farm on the T. & O. C. John Bowman had 80 acres in section 11, southwest of Bucyrus, the William Magee property on the south side of the Little Sandusky road. Isaac Fickle had 160 acres in section 10, a quarter of a mile west of Bowman's, the William Shroll farm, through which the Little Sandusky road passes; Joshua Lewis had 80 acres in section 15, south of Fickle, the George Gibson farm; John Miller, 80 acres, section 2, just northwest of Bucyrus, adjoining the Fourth ward, now F. W. Bittikoffer's. Joseph S. Morris, 80 acres, section 12, south of the fair ground, the John Wentz addition, Elizabeth Monnett, and the John Wentz land. Joseph Pearce, 80 acres, section 2, west of Miller's, owned by John Wentz. Gottlieb John Schultz, 80 acres, south of Miller's, adjoining the corporation on the west, the Pennsylvania road passing through the northern portion of his tract. Jane Stephenson, 160 acres, section 4, two miles west of Bucyrus, now owned by L. W. Buck and P. A. Beard; also a quarter section of the Wm. Caldwell farm on the Marion road, three miles south of Bucyrus. Other residents in the township as indicated by their paying tax on personal property in 1830 were John Bowman, Jr.; Thomas Bennet, J. Coulter, Isaac Didie, D. and I. Dinwiddie, William and Joshua Foreacre, William Fraley, Jacob Forney, Jesse Goodell, Jonas Gilson, Peter Hesser, George Hesser, William Hughey and son William, Lewis Heinlen, John Kent, Christopher Noacre, George Aumiller, George Sinn, Daniel Seal, David Tipton, George Welsh, Frederick Wisman.

Until 1835 Bucyrus was a fractional township, on account of the western third being an Indian reservation. The encroachment on the Indian land became so great, that early in the thirties pressure was brought to bear on the Indians to sell, but nothing came of it. Finally, in 1835, the government arranged to buy seven miles of their strip 12 miles deep. This was about two and a third miles of the western part of Bucyrus and Holmes townships, the two miles of northern Dallas, all of Tod, and southern Texas and extending nearly three miles into Wyandot county. The sale was set for Marion in 1837, but there were objections by the Indians after about one-third of the land was sold, and the sale was stopped. Later matters were arranged, and the entire seven-mile strip was sold, and all of the present Crawford county was open to settlement. The land brought about $2 an acre. In the sale a syndicate bought up all the land around Osceola and laid it out into ried James McCracken, who for two generations was prominent in the affairs of this county, and whose children were also active and prominent in the history of Bucyrus.

About 1828 there came into southern Bucyrus Isaac, William, Thomas and Osborne Monnett. Isaac Monnett owned several farms on the plains prior to 1830. In 1835 Rev. Jeremiah Monnett removed to the township and purchased his land of John Barney, the Rev. Thomas Monnett farm, four miles south of Bucyrus, now occupied by William Monnett, son of Rev. Thomas Monnett. Rev. Jeremiah's house stood just south of the present large brick building. It was a cabin of hewed logs. Here he lived until a better house was erected on the east side of the pike. He had three children, Abraham, Thomas J. and Mary, the latter later marrying James Royce. There were several families of negroes settled on what afterward became the Gormly farm, two miles south of Bucyrus, later the Rexroth farm. This gave the name to the woods a quarter of a mile from the pike the "nigger woods." These first colored pioneers were from Virginia, and came in 1828. At that time, under Ohio laws, the poor overseers of each township had the right to demand bond of $500 of any new arrival that he would not become a public charge. The Virginia owner on his death had given them freedom but not enough cash, and they were unable to put up the bond, so all left but one family, known as Old Solomon; he remained with his wife. He did not put up the $500, but one family made no difference and he was allowed to remain. Among those living in the township in 1830, as shown by the tax duplicate, were Thomas Adams, John Black, John Bowman, Isaac Fickle, Joshua Lewis, John Miller, Joseph Pearce, Jane Stephenson and Gottlieb John Schultz. Thomas Adams had 48 acres in section 9, two miles west of Bucyrus, the Chris Wisman farm along the river; John Black, 80 acres, section 13, a mile south, the Henry Flock farm on the T. & O. C. John Bowman had 80 acres in section 11, southwest of Bucyrus, the William Magee property on the south side of the Little Sandusky road. Isaac Fickle had 160 acres in section 10, a quarter of a mile west of Bowman's, the William Shroll farm, through which the Little Sandusky road passes; Joshua Lewis had 80 acres in section 15, south of Fickle, the George Gibson farm; John Miller, 80 acres, section 2, just northwest of Bucyrus, adjoining the Fourth ward, now F. W. Bittikoffer's. Joseph S. Morris, 80 acres, section 12, south of the fair ground, the John Wentz addition, Elizabeth Monnett, and the John Wentz land. Joseph Pearce, 80 acres, section 2, west of Miller's, owned by John Wentz. Gottlieb John Schultz, 80 acres, south of Miller's, adjoining the corporation on the west, the Pennsylvania road passing through the northern portion of his tract. Jane Stephenson, 160 acres, section 4, two miles west of Bucyrus, now owned by L. W. Buck and P. A. Beard; also a quarter section of the Wm. Caldwell farm on the Marion road, three miles south of Bucyrus. Other residents in the township as indicated by their paying tax on personal property in 1830 were John Bowman, Jr.; Thomas Bennet, J. Coulter, Isaac Didie, D. and I. Dinwiddie, William and Joshua Foreacre, William Fraley, Jacob Forney, Jesse Goodell, Jonas Gilson, Peter Hesser, George Hesser, William Hughey and son William, Lewis Heinlen, John Kent, Christopher Noacre, George Aumiller, George Sinn, Daniel Seal, David Tipton, George Welsh, Frederick Wisman.

Until 1835 Bucyrus was a fractional township, on account of the western third being an Indian reservation. The encroachment on the Indian land became so great, that early in the thirties pressure was brought to bear on the Indians to sell, but nothing came of it. Finally, in 1835, the government arranged to buy seven miles of their strip 12 miles deep. This was about two and a third miles of the western part of Bucyrus and Holmes townships, the two miles of northern Dallas, all of Tod, and southern Texas and extending nearly three miles into Wyandot county. The sale was set for Marion in 1837, but there were objections by the Indians after about one-third of the land was sold, and the sale was stopped. Later matters were arranged, and the entire seven-mile strip was sold, and all of the present Crawford county was open to settlement. The land brought about $2 an acre. In the sale a syndicate bought up all the land around Osceola and laid it out into

My dear Sir,

Depositions taken in the case of Phebe Fickle vs Isaac H. Fickle, before George S. Higgins, Master Commissioner in Chancery in pursuance of the notice hereto attached. Presents E. H. Lelain, Attorney for defendant Isaac H. Fickle in his own proper person at the clerks office in the Town of Bryan in said county this 16th April AD 1842.

Jabez Jones ($r ?) of lawful age being first duly sworn deposeth and says that between old Mr. Fickles death and the time that Isaac administered he and I were on our way to LaFayette and he asked me how I thought he had better proceed in the business. I told him I thought it would be best for the heirs to get together and make a dividend of the property and money. He said he thought it would be well enough to divide the money which was not drawn yet but that which was in his (Isaac) hands he thought he would keep for it would not pay his wife for washing for the old man. Isaac Fickle told me and I also know from the papers that there was $160 to be drawn at Fort Wayne and $160 at the Ohio Agency at Cincinnati. There was also (as I understood from Isaac Fickle) a Maryland pension to be drawn, the amount of which I do not know but I think it was $80.

I also had another conversation with Isaac after he was appointed administrator, he came and asked me to assist him in making out his papers. I told him his most proper course would be to state in his inventory the amount of money which was in the hands of Michael Fickle and also the amount which was in the hands of Kilpatrick and the balance to return in the inventory as cash on hand and then (says I) If you use any of the money the inventory will be evidence against you. He answered, By Dads that wont do.

I was one of the appraisers of the old mans estate after his death, Isaac represented to us the appraisers that there was no widow. We appraised a horse and a waggon and set of gears which I think was all the property appraised. There was I think, some talk of appraising a yoke of cattle, but Isaac claimed the cattle as his and they were not appraised. There was also a gun which Isaac claimed and which Michael Fickle said the old man had got made for Isaac and which we did not appraise.

I heard H. F. Hull say that Isaac Fickle had let him have $100 in money which Isaac said was the old mans money which Hull told me he had paid up. I do not recollect whether it was before or after the old mans death that Hull made this statement but I think it was about the time of his death.

Question by defendant in person - question by deft. Don't you recollect when you bantered the old man for swapping horses that he told you that he had no horse.

Ans. I do not recollect that he said he had no horse. There was an evasive answer.

Ques. by Deft. Do not you recollect of the old mans telling you that all the property which he brought there be brought for me.

Ans. I do not recollect any such thing.

Ques. by Deft. Do you remember hearing him say a short time before he died that he was about of money.

Ans. I do not recollect how long it was before his death, Mowdy wanted to borrow money of the old man, who told him he was about out of money and after some conversation with Isaac, Isaac went and got $5.00 which he gave to Mowdy.

Jabez Jones

Michael Fickle of lawful age being first duly sworn deposes and says that the fourth day after my fathers death, I was at his house and my brother Isaac H. Fickle brought out as near as I can recollect $512 or thereabouts which he said was all the money which father had at his death, the money was counted by myself and Isaac, as well as I recollect there was about $260 in paper and the balance in silver. My father had a yoke of cattle at the time of his death and which he bought in Hardin County and which before his death he calimed as his own, but which Isaac after his death said the old man had given to him.

I drew for my father at Cincinnati a short time before my fathers death $100, $50 of which by agreement with the old man was to pay me for going and the balance I paid to Isaac, the old man at that time was so low he did not know anything, and ten days after that time he died. I took no receipt from Isaac, for the money. At the time of the old mans death he had a gun. When the old man came to Hardin County he had the gun. I told him he had not much use for the gun and he might as well give it to me, he told me he should not give it to me or to any other man till he saw Isaac for he got the gun made for Isaac after he (the old man) was done with it and if the rascal would come and see him he would give it to him.

The old man had a log chain and I asked Isaac after the old mans death if he would not return the chain in the inventory. He said he would not for he had already returned a great deal more than he thought he ought to and he had as good a right to the chain as anybody. I also at the time of the appraisement insisted on having the bed and bedding and everything else appraised and returned and the money counted at that time. But it was not thought necessary by Isaac and some of the appraisers.

Some one of the appraisers, said that if the widow came on that the bed, bedding and clothing would be there for her. Isaac said he did not know that there was any widow and that he did not think she would be on to trouble him. I told him that she was alive and I told him so frequently at other times.

At a log rolling at Mr. Jones, I told Isaac that if he did not do what he ought to I would write to the widow and inform her of the whole business. Some time afterwards as we were going to supper, Isaac told me that he would rather than the amount of those drafts that there should be no fuss with the widow. The drafts which he referred to were a check on the Treasury at Fort Wayne for $160 and a draft on the Ohio Agency at Cincinnati for $160. I understood it to be a proposition to me to take those drafts as a consideration for not informing the widow. At the time of the above conversation I had the drafts in my hands.

I refused to accept of any such proposition and told him that if he did not go according to law that I would inform the widow and go in with her and do everything I could to have the thing right. I requested him to assign the drafts over to me which he refused to do but said he would take a shorter way. I then told him I would give him up the papers to which he made me no answer.

Some three or four days after this William Semans and William Jones came to my house and Semans told me he had come to see if he could get those drafts. I told Mr. Semans I should not give p the paper until Isaac should give me a receipt in full of all debts and Semans said Isaac would sign any paper to obtain the drafts and be clear of me. Mr. Semans then wrote a receipt which Mr. Jones afterwards brought to me with Isaacs signature and for which I gave him the drafts.

Deponent told Isaac that that money was the drafts undoubtedly belonged to the widow, Isaac said, we shall see about that.

In the fall after Father went to Isaac I told Isaac he had better keep a strict account of all the money of the old mans which he made use of for Vansky or somebody else will compel you to account for the money the old man brought with him.

Isaac answered that he would make Vansky or anybody else prove every cent of money which the old man had when he died or brought there with him.

From the best of my knowledge and belief when the old man left Hardin County to come to this county which was about 18 months before he died, he had about 14 hundred and fifty dollars with him.

I understood from Isaac and from father and from Enoch Harvey, who was an agent of the old man and drew pensions for him, that said Harvey brought the old man an amount of money from Cincinnati, the amt he brought was $104, but the old man only kept $30 or $30 the rest being said money he took Harveys note for the balance.

Depodent further saith that since the commencement of this suit and since commencing taking these depositions Isaac has endeavored to dissuade deponent from appearing as witness in this case and that he (Isaac) did not want the foregoing disclosures made public, further dependant saith not.

Michael Fickle

William Kilpatrick of lawful age being first duly sworn deposes and says that the spring after the death of old Mr. Fickle, I was at the corn field of Isaac Fickle, there was no one present but Isaacs son and himself, and had conversation with him about Michael Fickles being there to count money. Isaac told me that Michael had asked him about some gold which the old man had brought on and said he did not know of his having brought on any. The boy spoke and said yes there was some in a little gourd and that his grandfather said that his (the boys) mother should have it. There was a yoke of cattle and a gun which was brought on when the old man came on.

David Pickett being first duly sworn and of lawful age deposes and saith that the spring when Mr. Fickle died I was Justice of the peace, I received throught post office, pension papers from Mr. Harvey in Hardin County to hand to Mr. Fickle. The papers first come directed to Mr. Fickle and were filled out by me. they were returned to be altered directly to me and old Mr. Fickle and Isaac thought some one had better go on from here to draw the pension and they employed me. I went with an order on a Mr. Thompson of Hardin County, from the old man but did not draw the money. He stated that he did not expect to be called on so soon and had used the money and was not able now to meet the order.

I saw the old man when he moved into the country. There was a yoke of cattle which I think Isaac Fickle was driving and a horse but whose property it was I do not know.

Ans. One. Did not take it to Hardin County when he went to move grandfather down.

Ques. How many had he when he came back.

Ans. He fetched one along with him which made two. Did your father ever have any talk with you about you giving testimony in this case.

Ans. No sir

Ques. Are you quite sure

Ans. Yes sir, he never said anything to me as I heard of Ques. What did your father say he wanted to you when he came home after you today.

Ans. He told me he wanted me to come over here to tell all I knod about this affair.

Ans. About this estate business

Ques. How much money did you hear your father say there was left.

Ans. Fifty dollars and I know there was that much left it was all there was left too.

Ques. How many pocket books did your grandfather have.

Ans. I have not seen only one.

Ques. Where did your father get money when he counted it.

Ans. Out of his pocket it was part silver and part paper.

Thomas Shorthill of lawful age being first duly sworn deposes and says that there was a conversation between I. H. Fickle and myself in May or June 1840. Isaac said there was little or no money left by his father that there was $120 or $140 I don't remember which of money left by the old man which never expected to be a cent the better of. I asked him why and he said it was Michigan money and good for nothing and he didn't know whether it ever would be. I asked him what bank it was on. He said he did not know on what bank or different banks. He said he had a memorandum of it at home by which he could tell what banks it was on and that he had sent it (the money) away.

Had a conversation about it since in Harvest we talked about this memorandum some. I asked him if he did not think it would be necessary to hunt up the memorandum to show that the banks were down. He said he thought it would and he would hunt it up. He afterward told me he could not find it. It was generally supposed that the old man was worth about $1700 dollars including what was yet to be drawn as pension.

Thos. Shorthill

Jabez Jones reexamined.

Ans. Yes there was a log chain there which I understood belonged to the old man.

Ques. What was Mr. I. H. Fickle's circumstances previous to the old man's coming on.

Ans. He said he was tight in for money. I never knew him.

Ques. Was there any change in his circumstances after the old man came on.

Ans. A few days after the old man came on he bot of me 2 acres of land and paid me the money down. I understood him that he got part of the money of his father. It was the several opinion that the old man had a good deal of money from $1300 to $2000/

Jabez Jones

Michael Fickle reexamined

I was present when the cattle above mentioned were paid for. I seem my father counting the money out. I did not know how much it was until after they were paid for. He counted out the money and said here Mose is the money for the cattle and $500 more than any one else would have paid you. Vansky took the money and paid Isaac $500 who said here boys I have got money again and I am glad of it for if daddy had not gone with me I should only have had $2,50 to bear my expenses home.

In the fall after I came here I was talking to Isaac and he said that Mose made the old man pay more for the cattle than he would have done had he not known that if he (Isaac) took the cattle they would come out of his (Isaac) part of the estate

Captaincy in the 18th Regulars, Co. Carrington, but for some reason the appointment was not accepted.

Although several years beyond threescore, Maj. McLAUGHLIN did not long stay at home. Senator SHERMAN having received permission, in October last, to recruit two infantry regiments, a battery of artillery, and a squadron of cavalry, Capt. McLAUGHLIN. Was offered the Major's position in the latter arm. He accepted without delay, and in a few weeks time had his squadron recruited. In December the Sherman Brigade left for the South, and at Cincinnati McLAUGHLIN'S squadron was detached and ordered up the Big Sandy river in Kentucky. It has remained there ever since, and has been a valuable aid in keeping down rebels and guerrillas.

We heard early last week of the venerable Major's illness, and were fearful that the privations and exposure of a campaign would be too much for him. "He sleeps his last sleep; he has fought his last battle. No sound can awake him to glory again."

14 Dec. 1864, Mansfield Herald

Another Brave Soldier Gone.

We learn with regret of the death of Jesse JESSON, of this place, a member of the McLAUGHLIN squadron of cavalry. He was taken prisoner some time ago during the STONEMAN raid on Macon, and was confined in the rebel pen at Andersonville. - His death was caused, we learn by starvation and exposure while in the hands of the rebels. As the time of his death, he was in our hands, having just been exchanged. He is another victim to the barbarity and cruelty of the rebels.

Jesse JESSON was a printer by trade, and was formerly foreman of the Herald office. He was a most excellent soldier.

30 August 1884, Mansfield Herald

Death and Burial of the Old War Horse of the 32nd Ohio.

On last Saturday afternoon there occurred near this city an event which is probably the first of its kind that has ever taken place in the history of Ohio. It was the burial of "Old Prince," the veteran war horse of the 32nd Regiment O.V.I., with the honors of war. He owner, Col. Robert H. BENTLEY, who lives two miles out on the Newville road, is one of our well known citizens, and "Old Prince" was almost as well known as his master.

The old veteran died Friday night of old age.

"Old Prince" was born near Lexington, Ky., 35 years ago and when 8 years of age he came into the possession of Col. BENTLEY, who has owned him ever since. Co. B. took him into the army at the beginning of the war and as Colonel of the 32nd Regiment he rode "Prince" at the head of that regiment until after the fall of Vicksburg in July 1863, when Col. BENTLEY was transferred to the cavalry service and "Prince" was sent home to rest upon the laurels he had already won.

"Old Prince" was an extraordinary horse. It is said by those who knew him that he could do almost everything but talk. He was as much a part of the 32nd Regiment as any man in it, and he could recognize personally every man of his regiment. No difference how far he became separated from his comrades he could always find his way back into their camp. He went through 30 battles and was twice wounded. He was as brave a horse as ever lived and, like his gallant rider, he knew no fear. It was while riding "Old Prince" at the battle of Champion Hills that Co. BENTLEY with his own hands captured the flag of the First Mississippi Battery from as brave a man as the Confederate army contained. The boys of the 32nd never tire of recounting the virtues and achievements of "Old Prince" and it was fitting that they should pay a last tribute to the old war horse that had marched at their head on many a hard fought battle field.

— Capt. H. H. FICKLE, a neighbor and old army comrade of Col. BENTLEY, made the necessary arrangements for the funeral and performed his part admirably. Word was sent to as many of the survivors of the old 32nd as could be reached. Other ex-soldiers and friends of the Colonel were invited, among the latter being a SHIELD reported; in all about 50 persons gathered at the pleasant home of Col. BENTLEY at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. A squad of ex-soldiers was detailed by Commander KNOFFLOCK, of the G. A. R., to do the military honors of the occasion. The body of "Old Prince" were placed upon an improvised bier, which was decorated with the national colors. A procession was formed under the direction of Mr. P. P. FORD and the remains were escorted to the grave, which had been dug in the orchard south of the house and which was strewn with flowers by ladies. In this procession was led Wm. FOSS' mare "Pet," who was captured near Beverly, W. Va., and was "Old Prince's" companion during much of his army life. After the body was deposited in the grave the old flag captured at Champion Hills was placed about

The Bucyrus Journal says—"Quite a trophy was brought home the other day by Walter GILLIS, of Co. A, 12th Ohio Cavalry—it being no less than the saddle of the noted rebel guerrillas chief Sue MUNDAY. The Saddle was captured on the 3d inst.; about 25 miles from Lexington. It appears that a portion of the 12th Cavalry had a skirmish with MUNDAY's guerrillas and succeeded in driving them, and came so near capturing the leader that a member of Co. A, named William RIDDLE of Iberia, Morrow Co come up to MUNDAY and having no load in his carbine, struck at him with it, but MUNDAY dodging, he only knocked off his cap; the force given to the carbine so grant that RIDDLE missing his aim, was thrown out of his saddle, and his own horse and that of MUNDAY passed over him. A brother of Riddle then came up shot and killed MUNDAY's horse, but MUNDAY mounting RIDDLE's horse made his escape. Mr. GILLIS coming was allowed to take the saddle and brought it home as a trophy. It is an excellent officer's saddle, and will be still more valuable in this future as a memento of the war of the Great Rebellion."

Killed by Indians.

The Plymouth Advertiser says: "Letters have been received here from Fort Halleck, stating that on the 9th inst., while 35 of the 12th O.V.C. were on out post duty, six at a post, a large force of Indians attacked the post near the Platte River. It was defended for a while with great vigor but being overpowered, the boys mounted their horses and attempted to escape. During the retreat, George BODINE, son of C.E. BODINE, of New Haven township, was wounded, and fell from his horse. He was only able to rise upon his knees, but in this condition it is said, he defended himself until three bullets and thirteen arrows were lodged in his body. His body was recovered the next day, and found he have been scalped. He was buried on the 12th. Two others were killed and two wounded. The sympathy of the community will be with the friends of the deceased.

THE RAPE OF THE BUTTERNUTS.

On Wednesday a young lady from the country, whose name we forevar to give, made her appearance at one of our stores with a butternut fastened on her hat. Another young lady, from Olivesburg, a Miss HAMMOND, noticing it, requested it removal. She was answered by the first party, "That she wouldn't take it off, and she'd like to see the individual that would undertake to remove it." Whereupon Miss H. reached up and took away the obnoxious emblem. Nothing further of moment passed between the two, but a number of gentlemen who saw the occurrence were so pleased with the grit of Miss HAMMOND, that one bought her a dress, another a pair of gloves, a third a photographic album, others shoes, and parasols, until she was literally laden down with presents.

We heard of two or three other instances where persons had butternuts summarily taken from them.

TROUBLE WITH THE BUTTERNUTS.

Our town was quite lively Saturday afternoon. Many persons had come in to witness the balloon ascension, and among others were a number of young women wearing butternuts. A number of other young women were determined these emblems should come off, and come off they did, rebutting in several hair-pullings, scratchings, etc. We believe in one instance half a dozen a-side were engaged. Some big, brawney butternut got mixed upon in the "free fight," and struck a woman, for which he was arrested and brought before Mayor COBEAN, who held him for his appearance at Court next term.
